

Location Index for
Hulls in the American Revolution 1775–1783:
A Source Book, Including Some with the Holl, Hobl, Hole and Huls/Hulls Surnames
With Information on Wives, Selected Children, and Hull Women Married to Revolutionary War Men compiled by
 Phyllis J. Pankonin Hughes
 1997

This index was originally compiled to accompany the above 261–page book, issued in 1997. Please see http://www.hullfamilyassociation.org/hull_amer_rev.shtml for a detailed description of the book. The book is sold out, but copies have been placed in the major genealogical libraries throughout the country. Relevant copies of pages can also be ordered from the author for a nominal fee.

The Location Index is listed alphabetically by states, then counties, then by cities, towns, or townships. The locations of Hull Revolutionary War men are listed first, followed by locations of Hull women who married Revolutionary War men. Some of the below men with the same given names may be the same men. Updates and corrections to the original index have been made in this version, as new information has become available. The index also includes Hull Loyalists.

A duplicate index, which will include the names of the spouses of the Revolutionary War men and women, will eventually be posted on the For Members Only site. This addition will aid in making family identifications.

- Francis Holl/Hull's son Frederick did not marry Polly Cunningham, but rather Mary Ann "Polly" Koch/Cook
 - The John Hull, who married Amy Strickland, was not the son of Peter Thomas Hohl/Holl/Hull, but rather the son of Philip Hull and Elizabeth Barbara Lingenfelter
 - Peter Hull Jr., the son of Peter Thomas Hohl/Holl/Hull, probably did not marry Barbara Keith, but rather Barbara Penninger. This issue is still being studied

Corrected entry for:

Hull/Holl/Hohl, Peter Thomas/Tomas Sr. – b. ca. 1716 (1713); d. 1776; s/o Johannes Hohl and Anna Christine [—?—]; m. (1) __?__, (2) Susanna Margaretha Diefenbach, 1750. Patriotic Service, VA. (Note: Service is for furnishing supplies in Dunmore's War; claim filed in 1775, Augusta Co., VA. Both the DAR and SAR have, in the past, accepted certain payrolls from Dunmore's War as proof of Revolutionary War service [Ref. 16Q], but they no longer accept the Romney, Winchester, and Pittsburg (Fort Pitt) payrolls. Three different authorities—John Salmon of the VA State Library, and Robert Young Clay and Minor Weisiger of the VA State Archives—have stated that Dunmore's War was a colonial war, even though some of their payrolls were not made until the Rev. War period. Refer to Refs. 3I, 3J, 6T, and 6U for further information.) Res.: Bad Kreuznach, Hesse–Darmstadt, Pfalz, Germany; poss. St. Stephens Parish (location unknown), Germany; Lancaster Co., PA; Augusta (now Rockingham and Highland Cos.) Co., VA. (Remarks: Peter Thomas/Tomas Hull/Holl/Hohl Sr., a native of Pfalz, Germany, immig. in 1741 to Lancaster Co., PA from Rotterdam, Holland. Several records say that there was a son, poss. Peter Jr., from his first marriage, but no immigration list has been found for this son and he does not appear on the 1741 immigration record with Peter Thomas Sr.; however, children do not always appear in immigration lists. Other records give Peter Jr.'s birth as occurring in 1752, which would have been after the father's immig. date of 1741. See Peter Hull Jr., below.) #1–1–P. Additional Information on ChildrenI (surname Hull): Peter Jr., Adam, George Sr., Mary Magdalena, Anna Elizabeth, Margaret, Catherine, Phoebe Anistasia/Anise, Eva/Eve Catherine. Sons given to Peter Thomas/Tomas Hull/Holl/Hohl by other compilers, but now proven not to be his sons: Francis, Henry, John, William, Robert, Joseph, and David. Note: The cited references show that all children in this family used the Hull spelling for their surname; therefore, all children appear with only the Hull surname in Part IV.
